Meeting opened at 5.00pm
Aaron welcomed everyone and thanked them for their willingness to contribute to the school. The P&C represents the most amazing group to get up and running in our school.
Acknowledgement of country
2.0	Meet and greet
Who are you and why are you at Riva? Members went around the table to introduce themselves and their connection to Riva as parents and/or staff members.
Why? Discussion of opportunity and importance of involvement, contributing to the school for the benefit of the students. Sense of wanting to give back.
3.0	About our school
History Members were given a brief overview of the development of our school values and culture and how that aligns with our community and parent expectations, staff expertise and support for students:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Community forums - Surveyed the school community to get our 3 values (Respect, Inclusion, Achievement) - The importance of Equality vs Equity = Inclusion (fixing the system) - The story of Lea – illustrates that we bring help to our students. - Explanation of the logo and the shape representations
4.0	What does a P&C do?
P&C ROLE
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To be involved and participate in the school - Encourage parents to participate in developing our school's education approach - Use as a forum to discuss issues and gather opinions - To ring educational matters to the wider community - Advocate for what our school needs - Provide extra resources – FUNDRAISING
5.0	Discussion and brainstorm
PARTICIPATE, INFORM, CONSULT
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Seesaw? – love it / could send activities out for students to complete at home • COVID emails? Very useful / good to be aware / relevant and useful • We will have 20 RATS per child to take home (will set up a tent to give out). • We currently have 437 students (40 over our expectations). All classes apart from PP are either full or over. We have a waiting list for Kindy. • Will look into road safety – cross walks. • Will keep meetings on time for an hour

- Book Club – run by the library
- Fundraising ideas: colour run, mothers and Father's Day stall, sausage sizzle, quiz nights, crazy sock day, Bunnings.
- Big events
- Ask the staff for a wish list?
- Friday night bites fundraising

First Fundraiser = A "Something" Day!

Eg. Crazy sock, crazy hair.

July 1st

Will organise promotion.
