Educational purpose of excursion
The Interm Swimming Program provides quality swimming lessons to ensure students develop vital swimming and water safety skills.
Activities
Complete a series of 9 x Swimming Lessons
Special clothing or other items required
Students will require their regular school uniform, a complete change of clothes including appropriate swimwear, towel and goggles if desired. Students travel to the pool ready to swim, and return to school to get changed at the conclusion of the swimming lesson. You may wish to provide your child with a robe, gown or extra towel, to wrap on the journey to and from the pool. Please ensure all items of clothing, towels, gowns, goggles etc are clearly marked with your child's name.

Further information about the program, organisation and operational details will be provided in the lead-up to the Swimming Series. If you have any questions, please contact the school office at riva.ps@education.wa.edu.au or call 9562 8600.

Yours sincerely

Aaron Chaplin
Principal
